Worlds Only Regular Gay Skydiving Event Scheduled –Rainbow Boogie 2011!

April 20th, 2011 – The World’s only regular gay skydiving event is scheduled for August 4th to August 7th, 2011. The event will be held at Skydive Cross Keys, in Williamstown, New Jersey, USA, just across the bridge from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

All are welcome and encouraged to visit! Skydivers and Non-Skydivers, LGBT and Straight alike, all are welcome. The Rainbow Boogie is a “100% Hetero Friendly” event! Special arrangements are available for you to come out and experience your first skydive too! Members will be participating in multiple disciplines of skydiving with organizers working with Formation Skydiving, Vertical Formation Skydiving, Wingsuiting and Big Ways, along with many other fun activities.

The Rainbow Skydivers are an international group with LGBT and Hetero members from many countries. We seek to promote skydiving as a sport that is welcoming to all. Whether you've made hundreds of skydives, just did your first tandem skydive, or are interested in learning more about skydiving, feel free to join us! Anyone who is a member or supporter of the LGBT community who is into or interested in skydiving, is welcome. The Facebook group has grown to over 250 members already.

Skydive Cross Keys is the “Premier Dropzone on the East Coast.” Skydive Cross Keys offers the best experience for first time skydivers and has everything a "regular" jumper could want. Located just over the bridge from Philadelphia in New Jersey, Cross Keys is easily accessible from anywhere on the 95 corridor. Facilities include a huge indoor carpeted packing area, onsite gear store and cafe, volleyball and basketball courts, swoop pond and large creeping pads with new mock ups.

Spectators are welcome and encouraged to come out and view this exciting sport. Designated viewing areas are available that allow full view of operations at Cross Keys and don't forget your cameras. Media should contact Cross Keys for access to the facilities and photo advice.
